Summary of Case Revamping

Case Background

- In recent years, Nike encountered a few issues such as raising local competition, product quality issues & damaged brand by BCI, posing challenges to its market leading position
- A growth strategy needs to be developed to guide Nike's sustainable growth in next 5 years

Tasks For Analysis

- Evaluate Nike China status quo and develop a 5-year growth strategy to secure its leading position based on qualitative & quantitative analysis, incl. risk assessment & mitigation plan
- The presentation deck should cover max. 10 pages (no limitation for appendix)

Supporting Document

- Data Pack: diverse data are consolidated for a quick start incl. Nike annual reports, news articles, research reports
- Case Framework: a “cheat sheet” of framework is prepared for coach to guide analyst for problem solving

Case Briefing

Background

Nike, the leading sportswear brand, has been facing growth stagnation in China market in recent years, indicated by its declining revenue.

A few key challenges are observed:

Rising Local Competition

Rising local players as Anta/Lining gaining popularity among customers

Product Quality Issue

Increasing product complaints as result of supply chain switch to Southeast Asia

Damaged Branding

Declined brand popularity due to geopolitical tensions as BCI incident

Tasks

*In order to maintain topline increase and keep its market leading position, Peter Wang, a Nike Executive, asked Deloitte for help in formulating a 5-year growth strategy for Nike in China market

Mr. Wang is particularly curious regarding following questions:

- How should Nike react to current growth inhibitors?*
- How should Nike improve its existing product, channel and marketing setup to fuel business growth?*
- Are there any rising opportunities in the Chinese market which Nike should additionally invest in?*
- Are there any digital enablers and innovative technologies that can be leveraged for further growth acceleration?*

Task

Based on the briefing, your team is asked to develop a 5-year growth strategy backed up with both qualitative and quantitative analysis. A reporting deck¹⁾ needs to be prepared for a final presentation to Mr. Wang. You may refer to following structure for your presentation:

- Summary of Nike status quo incl. the key challenges*
- Recommendations on growth directions based on qualitative and quantitative evaluation*
- Assessment of growth opportunity risks and respective mitigation plans*

Note: 1) Deck shall contain no more than 10 pages in the main section (no limitation for appendix)
